

St. Joseph's Rosary and Altar Society met on June 2, 2010 with 9 people in attendance.

President Pam Reese led the opening prayer. The secretary's report was read and a section about coffee and donuts being served at the parish bake sales was amended by Lilah W. and seconded by Rose W.. Anything served would have a free will donation basket. For the first round of bake sales, Ericksons will use rolls left over from senior Sunday.

Treasurer Ann N. reported a balance of $1,532. with $908.81 of this being prayer blanket money. Approved by Elaine R. and seconded by Mary K.

Old Business: Senior Sunday discussed

New Business: *Point of clarification: All proceeds from the bake sales will go directly to the Building fund.

*Bake sales: People to start coffee and set up tables are still being located for August. August 29th date will be looked at in reference to Muffins for Mark as to whether there will be a bake sale that day.

*Msgr. Grundaus's farewell party: Sunday, June 27th at 6PM. Jan E. and Elaine R. will help. Jan E. will bake a cake, Mark E. will be asked to be the cook with meats and beans. The parish will be asked for salads or desserts. Tammy F. will be asked to maybe coordinate decorating with the wild west theme coming in September. The Parish Council will be approached about being responsible for a gift. Msgr. will be asked if there are friends that he would like to invite.

*4th of July float: Western theme to promote the September 11th theme. Kids will be handing out fliers.

*Meal ministry needs updating: Sue E. is now taking that lead, but Pam R. will get in contact with her.

Other Reports: There were no reports on Prayer blankets, the sunshine committee, or a date for VBS. A planning meeting was still to be held.

Future dates to remember: Sept. 11th Wild West Fundraiser open to the public
